Cleveland Pacifist Insists He'll Pay No Income Taxes

CLEVELAND, March 31-Max Sandin, 59, of Cleveland, refuses to pay federal income taxes because of his convictions against war.

Nevertheless, he pays them, if only indirectly.

Since 1943, long before a new cult of pacifists began refusing to pay taxes for "war preparations." Sandin has not paid a single cent of income taxes of his own volition.

Every year, the pacifist sends the Bureau of Internal Revenue a tax form bearing his name and address and a note saying:

Taft Doubts Senate OK Is Assured

Acheson, Bevin To Hold Parley

WASHINGTON, March 31-President Truman declared today that United States participation in the North Atlantic Alliance is absolutely necessary and flatly predicted that the U.S. Senate will ratify the pact.

The chief executive thus took issue with Sen. Taft, (R) Ohio, who said he is "uncertain" about the defense agreement and that his feeling is "shared by a large majority of senators."

Mr. Truman declared he had no way of knowing what was in Taft's mind but that he disagreed with the senator on any assertion that a majority of members of the Senate are not convinced that the pact should be

From there they called a taxi to take them the rest of the way to their homes, the chief added.

He said the police department was not notified until later.

WASHINGTON, March 31-Veterans Administration officials have estimated that the new Rankin pension bill for World War I veterans would cost $433 million annually by 1965.

They based their estimate on the belief that 46 percent of the veterans would be able to meet an income limitation in the revised pension plan. The bill, offered by Rep. Ran-

Cleanup Week For Farms Set

April 3-9 Set For Rural Program

Pickaway County farmers and farm organizations were urged Thursday to aid in the annual observance of National Farm Cleanup Week, set this year for the week of April 3 to 9.

Purpose of the project is to reduce livestock and poultry losses caused by disease, parasites and injury, according to Larry Best, County Agricultural agent.

"By taking a little time for a cleanup of lots and buildings now farmers can add materially to their 1949 livestock and poultry profits," Best said.

Heading the list of cleanup measures were:

Clean and disinfect livestock where young animals or birds are to be born or housed.

Clean out refuse in barnyards and feed lots. Old piles of manure and rubbish may be heavily infested with livestock parasites.

DRAIN OR fence off low, muddy spots in yards and pastures to protect stock against the germs and parasites that thrive in stagnant water.

Remove or destroy old straw stacks that harbor parasites and germs. Scatter the straw or plow it under.

Pick up and remove nails, glass and other sharp objects which might cause skin wounds and infections, or might be swallowed by livestock. Move young animals to fresh, clean ground as early as weather permits and around wearther permits, and around weanarea.'

Committee OKs New Local Aid

COLUMBUS, March 31-A $6.9 million increase in state aid to local governments was recommended for approval today by a six to nothing vote of the senate taxation committee.

A second of the three parts of the so-called "Youngstown plan" also was approved as the committee voted, 6 to 1, to place the $15 million-a-year intangible. tax in the local government fund. The tax is now returned directly to the counties of origin.

State Tax Commissioner C. Emory Glander said the bill to give local governments 15 percent of the sales tax instead of the present flat million-dollars-amonth would increase the cost to the state from $12 million a year to $18.9 million.

Lynching, like other forms of murder, should be within the power of state government to suppress. Unfortunately some sheriffs are too cowardly to do their duty when it might mean losing votes, and some when it might mean unpleasant relations with the neighbors. SEAMAN-TILLED SOIL Takes in More Moisture and Holds it Longer!

Because the SEAMAN TILLER completely pulverizes the soil - and because thoroughly pulverized soil takes in and holds a much greater percentage of water, - SEAMAN-TILLAGE aids greatly in drought protection. Illustrated is a simple test to prove this fact. Take two equal containers and perforate bottoms with same number and size of holes. Fill one with pulverized soil such as the SEAMAN TILLER produces; the other with an equal weight of lumps typical of conventional tillage. Pour water into both and measure amount that escapes. Often pulverized soil will hold as much as 8 to 10 times more water. Many SEAMAN owners report good yields when neighboring crops failed because

California Eyes Fatality After Boxing Match = SAN JOSE, Cal., March 31

San Jose authorities and offic of the California Athletic Con mission were gathering inform tion today on a fatal boxir match injury in preparation for a formal hearing next Monday. Investigation centered on th padding of the ring canvas wher Billy Cornwell, 24, Des Moine Ia., lightweight, fell Tuesda night.

Cornwell was kayoed by a right to the ajw from his oppone 'Tote' Martinez of Stockton Cal., and died yesterday withou regaining consciousness. Ringside observers agreed that Cornwell had suffered no unusual punishment but all said that his head struck the canvas with a resounding thud.

According to California law the protective padding on the rin floor should be at least tw inches thick. One witness to the fight, San Jose Police Chief Ra Blackmore, said the paddin was only "about one inch" thick District Attorney N. J. Mer ard said no action would be take against the dead fighter's opport ent, but promised a full investi gation of the fight which ended in the ninth round.
